Project Name	Strategic Product Placement Analysis
Maximum Marks	4 Marks

1. Dataset Overview

Source File Name: Product Positioning.csv
File Format: Delimited Text Log (CSV String Format)
Primary Key Dimension: Product ID linked with structural transaction intervals.

The underlying repository acts as a localized transaction logger mapping out stock display coordinates, department sectors, baseline pricing tags, regional competitor markers, and user demographic preference profiles. This structural data provides the backbone for the 8-sheet Tableau visualization dashboard engine.

2. Data Dictionary Matrix

The following sheet defines field data types, formatting criteria, and boundaries for each loaded record parameter:

Field Name	Data Type	Sample/Value Scope	Functional Definition & Dashboard Application
Product ID	Alphanumeric String	PROD-40982, PROD-11024	Unique tracking identifier assigned to distinct storefront inventory items. Used for cross-reference hashing.
Product Category	Categorical Text	Food, Clothing, Electronics	High-level store inventory departments used to group elements across major dashboard workspaces.
Product Position	Categorical Text	Aisle, End-cap, Front	Spatial placement coordinate parameter mapping where an item is situated physically on store floor shelves.
Sales Volume	Numerical Decimal	1727.7, 1830.1	Total volume metrics tracking transaction frequency velocity. Governs the sizing metrics of Treemap sectors.
Price	Currency (Float)	27.75, 28.47	The localized storefront customer retail pricing index recorded at the point-of-sale terminal.
Competitor's Price	Currency (Float)	25.31, 25.94	External regional benchmark pricing value used to measure pricing over-indexing markers on side-by-side bars.
Consumer Demo	Categorical Text	Families, Students, Seniors	Isolated purchaser segment attribute used to drive dynamic cross-filtering slices on demographic donut charts.
Promotion	Boolean / Text Flag	Promo-Active, None	Operational marketing state indicating if a pricing discount tool was active during logging intervals.
